Professional Profile

Agent/Broker – Working in Commercial Real Estate Since 2005

Ashley Quinn was born into real estate with Ken and Teresa Schwab as parents. Born and raised in Springfield, MO, attending Springfield Catholic Schools, Ashley has seen this community grow and change.

Ashley earned her Bachelor of Arts in Religion at Texas Christian University in Forth Worth, TX in 2005 and was licensed as a real estate salesperson later that same year and briefly kept a desk in Ken Schwab's office. Ashley consulted for Ken in 2009, helping to develop the new www.kenschwab.com website, coordinating the update, training the office staff, and incorporating increased internet marketing. In addition to real estate, Ashley has experience working with youth as a Youth Minister at Arlington Heights Christian Church in Texas, and as a Direct Care Counselor and In-Kind Donation Specialist at Attention Homes Youth Outreach and Homeless Shelter in Boulder, CO, as well as a background in food service, sales, and management.

Ashley currently serves as Marketing Director for the Commercial/Investment Division of Wilhoit Properties, and as a Leasing/Sales Agent specializing in industrial, office, restaurant, and retail leasing in center city and around Springfield (re-licensed in 2013). Ashley married Kate Quinn, licensed massage therapist, in May 2009, they are proud parents of a beagle-terrier rescue named Gus, and look forward to full marriage recognition in their home state of Missouri.
